Representative Quinn Announces Town-Hall Budget Meetings

MADISON – Representative Romaine Quinn (R-Rice Lake) invites the citizens of the 75th Assembly District to attend town-hall budget meetings to discuss Governor Scott Walker’s proposed budget bill. The public is welcome to attend any of the following sessions:

- 2/21/2015, 10 am – 12 pm at the Rice Lake City Hall Lakeshore/ Council Room (30 E Eau Claire St., Rice Lake)
- 2/21/2015, 3 pm – 4.30 pm at the Barron Community Center Meeting Room (800 Memorial Drive, Barron)
- 3/02/2015, 5 pm – 7 PM at UW-Barron County (1800 College Drive, Rice Lake), with Senator Janet Bewley (D-Ashland)

The legislature is able to make adjustments to the Governor’s proposed budget to ensure that citizens are heard on the issues. “As the Legislature considers the budget, it is crucial to hear from the people of our district. Their views guide me in finding common-sense solutions to the issues facing our state and district,” said Rep. Quinn. “I am eager to work with my constituents in the coming months to assure our priorities are met and to help wade through such a large amount of information.”

The three town-hall meetings scheduled by Representative Quinn are intended to encourage dialogue surrounding budget priorities. For anyone unable to attend the announced sessions, Rep. Quinn’s office can be reached at 608.266.2519 or toll-free at 888.534.0075. His email address is Rep.Quinn@legis.wisconsin.gov.
